The Fox and the Grapes

One afternoon, a fox was walking through the forest and spotted a bunch of grapes hanging from a lofty branch. "Just the thing to quench my thirst", said the fox.

Taking a few steps back, the fox jumped and just missed the hanging grapes. Again, the fox took a few paces back and tried to reach them, but still failed. Finally, giving up, the fox turned up his nose and said, "They are probably sour, any way." Then, he walked away.

Moral :- It's easy to despise what you cannot have.

3rd Term (January to March)The Goose with the Golden Eggs

Once upon a time, a man and his wife had the good fortune to have a goose which laid a golden egg every day. Lucky though they were, they soon began to think they were not getting rich fast enough. They imagined that if the bird is able to lay golden eggs; its inside must be made of gold. And they thought that if they could get all that precious metal at once, they would get mighty rich very soon so the man and his wife decided to kill the bird. After cutting the goose, they were shocked to find that its inwards were like that of any other goose.
