

102 students including all from PRIME 40 qualified from DAV Chandrasekharpur Bhubaneswar

As many as 102 students from DAV Public School, Chandrasekharpur have qualified the All India Medical Entrance Examinations (NEET 2018). Pragyan Paramita Mahanta with 642 marks (AIR 222) topped from the school. Among others, Swapnita Sahu with 633 marks (AIR 362), Smruti Smaraki Dash with 626 marks (AIR 492), Aanchal Agrawal with 623 marks (AIR 573), Daniel Bharadwaj with 610 marks (AIR 1039), Meenakshi Sahu with 597 marks (AIR 1683) & Trupan Bhattacharya with 593 marks (AIR 1996) at the top rankers from the school. All students from the school monitored exclusive Medical Guidance Programme PRIME 40 have qualified the prestigious examinations. 5 students secured more than 600 marks where as 32 students secured more than 500 marks. Total 58 students have been placed in AIR 28 thousand ranks. The school Principal Dr. K. C. Satapathy and In-charge Teacher Mr. Niranjan Swain congratulated all the meritorious students for the record making performances.